VINEYARD DETAILS

McLaren Vale had good winter, and early spring rains were followed by a generally dry and temperate growing season. Good flowering conditions, particularly for the later ripening varieties, resulted in higher berry numbers per bunch. Canopies developed well and were balanced to slightly above-average yields. Slow and steady ripening, without excessive heat events resulted in superb varietal fruit intensity with balanced natural acidity and fine tannin structures.

VINTAGE DETAILS

Overall 2022 was one of the coolest ripening period for many of years, very good spring rains and a cooler summer allowed for slow flavour enhancement. With good subsoil moisture the fruit was in perfect condition. Vintage harvest dates were 2 weeks behind average.
